

4. Methods of payment of fees

4.1 Payment through e-kasneb

Students are advised to download the e-kasneb app on Google Play Store and pay through the e-kasneb wallet. Students may also access the e-kasneb on the student's portal through the kasneb website www.kasneb.or.ke. A detailed guide regarding this mode of payment may be obtained from the kasneb website www.kasneb.or.ke.

4.2 Payment through various kasneb Student Fee Collection Accounts with banks

(a) Payment of fees by students in Kenya should be made to the kasneb Student Fee Collection Accounts in any branch of the listed banks below countrywide using the appropriate fee deposit slips. Students are required to complete the appropriate kasneb forms and the relevant fee deposit slips (except for Postbank which does not use deposit slips). Upon payment of the requisite fees to the banks, a cash deposit receipt will be issued to the payee. The completed kasneb forms should be left with the banks for onward transmission to kasneb.

1. Kenya Commercial Bank of Kenya Limited - kasneb Fee Collection Account No. 1203681194.
2. National Bank of Kenya Limited - kasneb Fee Collection Account No. 01001031572601.
3. Equity Bank Ltd. - kasneb Fee Collection Account No. 0170299238025.
4. Kenya Post Office Savings Bank (Postbank) - kasneb Fee Collection Account No. 0744130009246.
5. Co-operative Bank of Kenya Limited - kasneb Fee Collection Account No. 01129128535900.

(b) Students outside Kenya are advised to pay the applicable fees in dollars at any branch of KCB in their countries to kasneb KCB collection Account Number 1123096465 or at UBA Kenya Bank Ltd. collection Account Number 55030160004156. Thereafter, students should submit their documents to kasneb together with a copy of the bank deposit slip. Students are personally responsible for ensuring that fees are paid to kasneb. Consequently, students who pay fees through third parties should ensure that such parties are honest and reliable and will therefore remit the fees to kasneb without delay. Bankers Cheques/Drafts should be drawn payable to kasneb. Inter-State Money Orders should be payable at City Square Post Office. Examination entry/annual registration renewal forms and remittances which are sent by post should be posted at least one week before the closing date to ensure that they are received on time.

4.3 Payment by banker's cheque/draft

Payment can also be made by Bankers Cheque/Draft. Bankers Cheques/Drafts should be sent to kasneb together with the relevant covering letters to avoid delays in processing such fee. Cheques are accepted only on condition that they will be honoured on first presentation. Any cheque which is dishonoured for whatever reason or which has to be returned to a student because it is post-dated or is incomplete or has some technical defect may result in the student not being registered or entered for the examinations. Besides, the student will be required to pay an administrative charge thereof.

Students are advised that payment by cash at kasneb Towers was phased out and therefore students should utilise the above payment channels.

4.4 Students residing in foreign countries

Students based in foreign countries may pay fees in US dollars to kasneb KCB collection account No. 1123096465 domiciled at Capital Hill Branch, Nairobi or by bankers cheques/drafts which should be drawn payable to kasneb.

5. Closing dates for the May 2018 examinations

The closing dates for late registration, normal examination entry and late examination entry for the May 2018 examinations are as shown below:

- (a) Late registration - Thursday, 15th February 2018
- (b) Normal examination entry - Thursday, 15th February 2018
- (c) Late examination entry - Saturday, 31st March 2018

6. Withdrawal from the examination

For all cases of withdrawal, students must submit a letter quoting their registration number, preferred examination centre and reason(s) for withdrawal. Students who withdraw from the examination before the closing date specified for late entry will be refunded 50% of the examination entry fee. Students who are prevented from sitting the examination by illness may be refunded 75% of the examination entry fee subject to production of an authentic medical certificate covering the examination dates.

7. Deferment of examination fees

A student shall be allowed to defer examination fees to the subsequent examination sitting only once in any particular level or section upon application and providing sufficient reason(s) for deferment. The specific grounds for deferment are specified on the kasneb website www.kasneb.or.ke. The successful applicants shall be required to pay an administrative charge equivalent to 15% of the applicable examination fees on or before Wednesday, 15th August 2018 failure to which the opportunity granted for deferment will lapse.

All applications for deferment of examination fees to the November 2018 sitting must reach kasneb on or before Friday, 20th April 2018.

11. Special concession for registration and entry to other Professional examinations for the November 2017 Professional examinations graduates

Congratulations on your successful completion of the professional examination in November 2017. Please note that you are eligible to immediately register as a student for the CPA, CS, CICT, CIFA or CCP examination and enter to sit the May 2018 examinations on or before Wednesday, 28th February 2018.

You are advised to register and enter for the examination immediately upon confirmation of your results and/or receipt of the result notification for the November 2017 examinations.

Students who are attending courses at certain institutions should ascertain if a centre has been arranged at that institution. Whether a centre will be arranged at a particular place will depend on the number of students at the various levels or sections of the examination. A centre which has very few students may be closed for a particular sitting and students transferred to another centre. Similarly, in a centre where many students have chosen to sit for the examinations, some students may be transferred to another centre. kasneb reserves the right to reject any entry or to transfer a student from one centre to another.

10. Special concession for registration and entry to the Professional examinations for the November 2017 Diploma examination graduates
